

Public interest disclosure form

This form has been created to assist Integrity Oversight Victoria to receive a public interest disclosure (PID).

Before you make your disclosure:

- Please read the PID section on Integrity Oversight Victoria's website, which provides information about:
 - what and who you may make a PID about
 - what PIDs Integrity Oversight Victoria is able to receive
 - how you may make a PID to Integrity Oversight Victoria
 - how Integrity Oversight Victoria will assess and handle your PID, including how Integrity Oversight Victoria will protect and manage your privacy and the confidentiality of your PID
 - in what instances Integrity Oversight Victoria may notify your PID to another body for further assessment and investigation
 - what legal protections are provided to you for making a PID.
- If you wish to make a PID about Integrity Oversight Victoria or an Integrity Oversight Victoria officer, you must make your disclosure to the Integrity and Oversight Committee or a Presiding Officer.
- You may opt-out of making a PID within 28 days after making your disclosure by advising Integrity Oversight Victoria in writing that your disclosure is not a PID.
- Consider your privacy and whether you wish to make an anonymous disclosure to Integrity Oversight Victoria.
- Please note that it is an offence to wilfully make a statement to Integrity Oversight Victoria that is false or misleading in a material particular.
- If you wish to make a complaint to Integrity Oversight Victoria, please use Integrity Oversight Victoria's Complaint form.

What you can make a PID about:

- Improper conduct engaged in or proposed to be engaged in by a Victorian public body, a Victorian public officer or person, including:
 - corrupt conduct
 - serious professional misconduct
 - dishonest performance of public functions
 - conduct which poses a substantial risk to the health and safety of a person or to the environment
 - substantial mismanagement of public resources
 - conduct by a person that is intended to adversely affect the honest or effective performance of a public body or public officer.

* Improper conduct does not include conduct which is trivial (i.e. trivial conduct).

- Detrimental action taken or proposed to be taken by a Victorian public body or Victorian public officer in reprisal for the making of a PID and in contravention of section 45 of the Public Interest Disclosures Act 2012.

Send this form to:

- Email: info@integrityoversight.vic.gov.au
- Post: PO Box 617 Collins Street West, Melbourne VIC 8007

This PID form may also be submitted in person at Integrity Oversight Victoria's offices. If you wish to submit the form in person, please contact Integrity Oversight Victoria by telephone on 1800 518 197.

What PIDs Integrity Oversight Victoria can receive:

Integrity Oversight Victoria is a receiving body for PIDs and can receive a PID about a number of organisations, including:

- Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission
- Judicial Commission of Victoria
- Office of Chief Examiner
- Office of the Victorian Information Commissioner
- Parliamentary Workplace Standards and Integrity Commission
- Public Interest Monitor
- Victorian Auditor-General's Office
- Victorian Ombudsman.

(See the public interest disclosure section on Integrity Oversight Victoria's website for more information).

Protections for making a PID

The Public Interest Disclosures Act 2012 provides a number of legal protections for making a PID. These include protection from:

- detrimental action in reprisal for making a PID
- civil or criminal liability for making a PID, apart from any liability arising from a disclosure relating to your own conduct
- an action of defamation for making a PID.

In addition to the above protections, the Public Interest Disclosures Act 2012 also provides an option to request a transfer of employment to avoid anticipated reprisals associated with making a disclosure.

Privacy and confidentiality:

Integrity Oversight Victoria is committed to protecting the confidentiality of your identity and the content of your disclosure, in accordance with all relevant legislation.

In handling your disclosure in accordance with relevant legislation, Integrity Oversight Victoria may be required to provide the details of your disclosure to another body. In these instances, the information you have provided to Integrity Oversight Victoria, including any personal details, may be provided to that body.
